

A Service of Prayer for the Nation at War

OPENING HYMN

Almighty Father, Strong to Save (CW 517)

INVOCATION AND PRAYER

M: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

M: Almighty God, merciful Father, our ever-present help in time of trouble, you have warned us that there would be wars and rumors of wars for as long as this world endures. We come before you on behalf of our nation, which faces dangers from within and without. Deliver it from every threat. Enable and inspire our leaders. Energize and encourage our citizens to pursue that which is good and right.

C: Hear us, O Lord.

M: Lord Jesus, you are the Prince of Peace. By your life, death, and resurrection you earned for us peace with God. In a restless and turbulent world enable us who know your peace to serve as peacemakers. Help us by word and example to promote harmony in our homes, places of work, churches, schools and wherever you place us in life.

C: Hear us, O Christ.

M: O Lord, Ruler of nations and Savior of all people, we remember before you today the men and women who serve in our nation's armed forces. Be with them, protect them, and help them faithfully to carry out their difficult duties. Relieve the anxious thoughts of loved ones who are concerned about their safety. We know, Lord, that the ultimate cause of aggression and war is sin. Lead us to repent of our sins and hold fast to your forgiving love. When you determine to restore peace, grant that what is just and right in your eyes will prevail. We ask this for Jesus' sake.

C: Hear us, O Lord.

PSALM 140 (read responsively)

M: Rescue me, O LORD, from evil men; protect me from men of violence,

C: who devise evil plans in their hearts and stir up war every day.

M: They make their tongues as sharp as a serpent's;

C: the poison of vipers is on their lips.

M: Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked;

C: protect me from men of violence who plan to trip my feet.

M: Proud men have hidden a snare for me; they have spread out the cords of their net

C: and have set traps for me along my path.

M: O LORD, I say to you, "You are my God." Hear, O LORD, my cry for mercy.

C: O Sovereign LORD, my strong deliverer, who shields my head in the day of battle—

M: Do not grant the wicked their desires, O LORD;

C: do not let their plans succeed, or they will become proud.

PRAYER

M: Heavenly Father, God of peace and harmony, You would have your children on earth live together in peace and quietness. Nevertheless, in your wisdom you have permitted forces of evil to threaten and advance. Watch over, we pray, all those who stand in harm's way. Bind up the wounds of those who have been hurt. Give endurance to all who struggle to tend to the needs of others. Be with those who stand for law and order; for decency and justice, and lead us to support them. Frustrate the plans of all who would cause terror and suffering. Guide our nation so that it may act wisely in response to both crisis and opportunity. Above all, enable your holy Church to speak your comforting Word of peace in Jesus Christ, so that in the midst of this dying world we may know the true source of our hope; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

M: Defend and provide for the widowed and the orphan, the refugees and the homeless, the unemployed, and all who are desolate and oppressed.

C: Hear us, good Lord.

M: Heal those who are sick in body or mind, and give skill and compassion to all who care for them.

C: Hear us, good Lord.

M: Grant us true repentance, forgive our sins, and strengthen us by your Holy Spirit to amend our lives according to your holy Word.

C: Hear us, good Lord.

CONCLUDING PRAYERS

M: Son of God, we ask you to hear us.

C: Son of God, we ask you to hear us.

C: Have mercy on us.

M: Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world,

C: Hear us, good Lord.

THE GOSPEL LESSON

Matthew 24:1-14

Jesus left the temple and was walking away when his disciples came up to him to call his attention to its buildings. "Do you see all these things?" he asked. "I tell you the truth, not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down."

As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately. "Tell us," they said, "when will this happen, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"

Jesus answered: "Watch out that no one deceives you. For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am the Christ, 'and will deceive many. You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. All these are the beginning of birth pains.

"Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me. At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people. Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold, but he who stands firm to the end will be saved. And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come."

PRAYER

M: Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time to make our supplication to you with hearts of one accord; and you have promised through your beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his name, you will be with them. Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us, granting us in this world knowledge of your truth and in the ages to come life everlasting.

C: Amen.
